The Indonesian Situation
(Report #66 - As of 4:00 P.M. EST)

1. Sukarno and the army continue to jockey for power with neither able to obtain a clear advantage. The President and his close associates are apparently maneuvering to head off the army's anti-Communist drive. Sukarno and Foreign Minister Subandrio are said to be trying both bribes and political deals to buttress their position, without marked success.

2. West Java military commander Adjie announced that the PKI in his area had been "dissolved"; previously it had merely been "suspended." Adjie's support of the anti-PKI campaign has been less vigorous than that of other top army leaders, and he may hope that by claiming the PKI no longer exists in his area he will dampen anti-Communist agitation.

3. The army drive against PKI members continues in Central Java. Some 8,000 PKI adherents are reported under army detention.
